The Character of an Honest Lawyer

An honest Just Lawyer, whilst he lives he is the delight of the Court, the Ornament of the Bar, the Glory of his Profession, the Patron of Innocency, the Upholder of Right, the scourge of Oppression, the Terror of Deceit, and the Oracle of his Country: And when Death calls him to the Bar of Heaven, by a Nobis Corpus cum Causis, he finds his Judge his Advocates, consults the Devil, obtains a Liberate from all his Infirmities, and continues one of the Long-Robe in Glory.

Sacred's the Name of King and Full of Splendor;
Great is the Title of our Faithful Defender;
Stand there Great William in successive might:
Our King by Miracle as well as Right;
Let him victorious be, and still advance;
And end his Conquests in the Heart of France.
Now Let all Loyal Subjects thus conclude;
May Caesar Live, and never be subdued;
"Heavens Bless your Majesties, increase your powers,
"No happiness to that of being yours.

Remarks upon the Honest Lawyer and his Country Client

Our Country Spark, who hath his suits depending,
 Impatient till the Long-Vacation's ending,
 Having both Reapt his Fields and Rod'd his Barn,
 And forc'd his Wife to sell her Whined Tarn,
 Grams all into a Purse, and up he hies,
 Where he is welcom'd in this Cunning-wife,
 "Your servant Sir, I'm glad to see you here,
 "Your honest Business Runs on Calm and Clear,
 "The ablest Counsel Money can procure,
 "Give us in Black and White, all's safe and sure,
 "Your Declaration is so purely drawn,
 "That on your side my very Head I'll pawn,
 Starve not so good a Cause, now that you have,
 A way to, on Reveng'd both safe and Brave,
 Before to lay on Load, and spare no Coll,
 For not a penny of it shall be lost,
 The Man's encourag'd with such hopes as these,
 Sticks not at Doublet nor at Treble Fees,
 And if you long what's his success to know,
 The following Lines, this case shall quickly show,
 The Goose caps Cause to Hearing comes at last,
 And by the Jury he is Roundly cast,
 The Adversaries Counsel scrib with pray,
 Cost may be pay'd them ere he part away,
 But the Grave Court more pittyful then so,
 Gives him some time and let's him Homeward go,
 Mean time the Petty Flogger cries again,
 "Loose not so good a Cause but try again,
 Those oft Recover, that at first Miscarry;
 (Nothing amongst us is more Ordinary)
 Ere this I never such a Pannel saw,
 Nor verdict brought so contrary to Law,
 Your Wheezing Wilets if she Jure have sent,
 Did strike all Dead, but she did not consent,
 "I like your spirit well, she's a goodly wile,
 But where else? shall I have such a wile?
 My Stock is quite Consum'd, my Money's gone:
 How should I then another Suit bring on?

Days perfix'd for all Sheriffs, Bailiffs of Liberties, and other Accompanys, to come to their respective Accomps in the Exchequer.

Certain Rules and Admonitions in way of Purchase or Sale of Land, Leases, Annuities, or Purchases, and what they may be worth, &c.

To which Purpose this following Rule is very considerable, viz.

He that would Purchase and would gladly know,

Which way he might securely put forth so;

For his more safety, let him not be Nice,

To Ponder those few Rules for his Advice.

First see the Land that thou intendst to Buy

Within the Sellers Title clear doth lye;

And that no Woman to it doth lay claim,

By Down, Joynure, or some other Name

That may it Cumber: Know if Bond or Free

The Tenure stand, and that from each Feeoffice

It be releas'd, that the Seller be so old,

That he may Lawful Sell, thou Lawful hold

What thou hast Bought; That it not Morgag'd lye,

Nor yet entail'd on Posterity:

Then whether it stand in Statute Bound or no,

Be well advis'd what Quit-Rent out must go;

What Custom Service hath been done of old,

By those that formerly the same did hold:

And if a wedded Woman put to Sale,

Deal not with her unless she bring her Male:

For she doth under Covery-Baron goe

Altho sometimes, some Traffique so (we know:)

And if it may in any wise be done,

Make thus with Warrantize thy charter Run

To thee, thine Heir, Executors, or Assignes;

For that beyond thy Life securely Binds:

So this foreseen thus done may that prevent

That after makes rash Buyers to Repent.

And yet when I have shew'd all Rules I can,

To assure thee more, deal with an Honest man.

Here are Diversities of Customs in Purchasing of Land, some in Course of Inheritance of Lands, some in way of Tenants Dowries, some in matters of Perpetuities, some in Works, some in Rents, some in Fines and the like, and therefore much waryness and Circumspection behoves a Purchaser.

The end of all Mens Indevours for Earthly things is but to Nourish the Life, with Wealth, and Honour, and so have (if possible) all Conveniences, for Pleasure, Profit, and Respect in Declining or Waning Age; These Gronds in true understanding not so Impulsive as they are made, And yet we see to what Divers Thoughts, Consultations and Reaches, they bend Mens Indevours, to compass the one, that they may Inviron the other; And therefore with the Tide of mens affections, I endeavour to swim along in Cutting out some little channels of Profit with the Ignorant: Yet worldly minded Men Pelting in a lower, yet harder kind of Tax, not for want of means, but for want of knowledge, in not understanding the valuation of Leases, Annuities and Purchases; many times looleth that in a day, by omitting a Bargain falling into his hands, which many Months labour doth not Counter-vail, and therefore by some Directions to bring a little Torch light to the Purblind Ignorant I have Indevoured to set down some Rules of Instruction in this kind. And therefore to that Purpose, first I demand what kind of Purchases are most Profitable, whether Fee-simple or Leases, If of Leases, whether a Lease of 40, 50, or 100 years, or of the Term only of 21, be most Profitable?

To which I answer this Question is to be valued according to the lesser or greater Summ, or Summs of money that the Purchaser hath to bestow: For if a Gentleman have Ten thousand Pounds in his Purse or more, Then as the Nature of man is ambitious, thereby he hath hope in Purchase of Fee-simple to confirm an Hereditary Succession to his Posterity, and the meanest Free-holder will say tis greater Satisfaction for a man to live upon his own, and to have a certainty for his Heir, all which Fee-simples Accomplish:

compleish: yet wisthal you must think he is not so free but he is subject to many Services whereunto some Inferior Tenures are not, Although most men think it so precious a thing to be a Free-holder, and as such a quiet to a mans mind to settle himself upon his own Earth, also to know his Heir certain, &c.

Leases say they are but of mean and low Account, the Lessee many times having his Lease taken over his Head, when free Inheritance cannot be shaken, And to Purchase for Life we know is but a slender hold at the Best, and yet lately more uncertein than ever, as has been by the sudden fall of many Thousands experienc'd, of the Brevity whereof these good old verses seem to complain

So short's this Life that every Peasant strives

In a Town House or Field to have three lives.

What man is he that lives unto the Age

Fit to become Methuselah his Page.

Now amongst all these Exceptions and Pleading for Freehold Inheritances, If any one should ask me whether I think it more profitable to Purchase Land in Fee-simple or by Lease, I answer for small Portions of money Leases. To this peradventure some will say, why, a Lease is gone in a third part of a mans Age, unless it be for 40, 50, or 100 years? upon a Lease of such Length, there were some Reliability: Notwithstanding, I hold a Lease of 21 years to be more profitable, altho to some it may seem strange. For put the Case you have a Thousand pound in your Purse, and you will Purchase a Lease of 100 years, It will cost you 13 years Purchase at least, so your 1000 pound will buy but 80 pound per Annum which will not amount to the use of your Mony at the rate of 10 l. per cent, as I put the case by 20 pound per Annum: But if you buy a Lease for 21 years, you may have it for seven years Purchase at the former Rate of Money, so will your 1000 pounds Buy a Lease worth 40 pound a year exceeding the Interest of your money 40 pounds a year, and so in the greater you loose 20 pounds a year, and in the lesser you gain 40 pounds pounds a year: Now Judge which is better a Lease of 100, or 21 years.

A Father Dyeth and leaveth his Son 20 Nobles a year clear by Lease, the Lease 16 years to come, the Son would sell the same for one Intire Summ of Money, the Query is what this Lease is worth in Ready Money, and what he may demand for the same? I answer according to the Rate of Money now he may demand at least six years Purchase, or 40 pounds, and that Rate will yield and hardly more.

Another has a Lease of 10 pounds a year clearly coming in, 21 years in the continuance, the party desires to sell the same and would know what Summ of money he may justly demand? The answer is, it is worth 8 years Purchase, 8 times 10 is 80 pound, the value thereof to be Demanded.

A third person hath an Inheritance of Fee simple to the value of 25 pounds a year, and being desirous to sell the same would know (according to the present Interest of money) what it would safely and Honestly yield?

To this I answer some 18 years Purchase, or thereabouts according to the situation and Esteem of the Purchase or Inheritance which comes to 450 pounds.

And after this manner are all Leases, Annuities, and Purchases to be valued according to How many years Purchase they will yield, which are sometimes more and sometimes less according to the Rates of money. See more of this Subject in Mr Phillipp's Purchasers Pattern.
